GAME REPORT: In terms of having fun in the field, we were the big winners today. Unfortunately, MyCricket doesn't award points towards the premiership for who has the most fun. In terms of cricket, we were convincingly beaten. Col and Todd had a good opening stand, and Lachlan looked great in his first game for the Hawks as well, but overall, we just didn't put enough runs on the board to push our opposition. We got through 40 overs, which showed our patience, but need to turn time in the middle into bigger scores. The opposition captain was clearly their best bat, and he scored quickly, making 63. Upon removing him, we were able to take a couple more quick wickets, but our total was just too low in the end. We also put down a couple of chances, so some improvement possible there as well. Overall, a moderate start, but it was just great to be back out in the field playing cricket again. There was a bit of kaffuffle in the sheds at the end of the day when Col forgot the crackers for the cheese and kabana. Play of the day goes to the ever reliable Immanuel who saved the afternoon by producing a magnificent packet of Ritz Crackers. Congratulations to Immanuel for the forward thinking there, and lets hope we don't have repeat of forgotten snacks next Sunday.
